

IDAHO YOUTH UNITE

Monday, November 4, 2019, 5:30 - 8:00pm

The Linen Building, 1402 W Grove Street, Boise, Idaho 83702

An event to empower Idaho youth to work together to improve the systems that serve them and create brighter futures for themselves, their peers, and their communities. With special focus on mental health, substance use, child welfare, and juvenile justice issues.

This free inspiring event will include:

- An interactive dialogue to help solve challenges facing Idaho youth.
- A welcome by Idaho State Representative Mathew Erpelding.
- “Youth are Agents of Change” - a presentation by Greg Dicharry, Youth Empowerment Director, Magellan Healthcare and MY LIFE.
- Dinner and engaging activities to inspire meaningful conversations.
- Information and resources for youth, families, professionals working with youth, and local stakeholders.

There is no cost for participation, but space is limited so please register soon!
