

Empowering Transition Age Youth

An opportunity for professionals and other stakeholders to discuss challenges and solutions to help better serve transition age youth, ages 16 to 24.

Wednesday, December 18, 2019, 11:30am – 1:30pm

Boise Library, Hillcrest Branch, 5246 W. Overland Road, Boise, Idaho 83705

Help address the fact that youth and young adults who experience mental health, substance abuse and/or foster care related challenges are much more likely than other youth to experience negative outcomes such as homelessness, criminal justice involvement and school dropout.

This free event will include:

- An interactive dialogue focused on improving outcomes for transition age youth.
- Voices of transition age youth.
- Information and resources to benefit transition age youth.
- Lunch will be provided.

Professionals and other stakeholders are encouraged to attend.

Space is limited for this free event, so please register soon!
