

STAY HOME
for MY LIFE
VIRTUAL
YOUTH
FEST

BIPOC MENTAL HEALTH MATTERS

Thursday, July 22, 2021
6:00-7:30 p.m. Eastern

This month's event will feature inspirational speakers and uplifting entertainment in honor of Black, Indigenous and People of Color (BIPOC) Mental Health Awareness Month.

Stay Home for MY LIFE is an online event designed for youth and young adults who have experience with mental health, substance use, foster care and/or other challenges.

This Week's Event Features

Brian Fluker, mental health advocate and peer services coordinator
Joseph "DJ Dimension" Mercado, music artist and founder of NDMDIGITAL
Tonja Myles, mental health advocate, veteran and pastor
LaShonda DeRouen, executive director, NAMI Louisiana
Tatiana Gonzalez Quiroga, advocacy and program director, NAMI Louisiana
Julius Gunn, music artist and MY LIFE founding member

Free Event

Registration is required

<http://bit.ly/mylife2021>

National Federation of Families for Children's Mental Health

Magellan HEALTHCARE.

For more information, contact:
Greg Dicharry at GDDicharry@MagellanHealth.com or visit Facebook.com/mylifeyouth