Healthy holiday boundaries sound like:

We are really looking forward to dinner and we need to leave by 'X' time.

I am not eating 'X' right now, but I appreciate you taking the time to make it.

Let's not discuss this topic at dinner. 🎵

I am going to head upstairs and get some quiet time.

Find additional information and resources at MagellanHealthcare.com/2023-holidays.

B-D1189E-MHC (9/23) ©2023 Magellan Health, Inc.

Mag

Reduce stress. Reclaim joy.

- Keep the traditions that bring \checkmark you joy and comfort.
- Say no to things that cause you to feel dread.

- Add new traditions that suit your interests and lifestyle.
- Let go of traditions that are outdated.

Find additional information and resources at MagellanHealthcare.com/2023-holidays.

B-D1189E-MHC (9/23) ©2023 Magellan Health, Inc.

Mage

Preserve your mental health

Set boundaries and limits.

Spend time with supportive people.

2

Find additional information and resources at MagellanHealthcare.com/2023-holidays.

B-D1189E-MHC (9/23) ©2023 Magellan Health, Inc.

Be respectful, yet assertive.

Mage

Self-care strategies for the holidays

- Do things you enjoy
- Set boundaries

Move your body Practice gratitude

Find additional information and resources at MagellanHealthcare.com/2023-holidays.

B-D1189E-MHC (9/23) ©2023 Magellan Health, Inc.

Feel your feelings

Set healthy holiday boundaries Boundaries teach them G Walls keep everybody out. where the door is.

Find additional information and resources at MagellanHealthcare.com/2023-holidays.

B-D1189E-MHC (9/23) ©2023 Magellan Health, Inc.

Mage