

YES System of Care

Providers of services to youth ages 0-17 should all become very familiar with foundational materials of the Youth Empowerment Services (YES) system of care.

Refer to these essential materials:

- <https://yes.idaho.gov/>: This is the authoritative website for YES.
- <https://yes.idaho.gov/youth-empowerment-services/tools/understanding-yes/>: This is the landing page for essential reading on YES including:
 - A Guide to YES: A Practice Manual
 - Services and Supports
 - Child and Family Teams
 - Coordinated Care Plans
 - Wraparound Intensive Services (IWInS)
- <https://yes.idaho.gov/youth-empowerment-services/tools/understanding-yes/guide-to-yes/>: This is the YES Practice Manual, the authoritative guide to YES.
- <https://yes.idaho.gov/youth-empowerment-services/tools/identifying-strengths-and-needs/>: This is the landing page for essential resources to help youth, parents and providers assess youths' needs:
 - Mental Health Checklists for Youth and Parents of Youth
 - The YES Screener
 - The Idaho CANS
- The Magellan Healthcare of Idaho Member Handbook is available in the For Members area of www.MagellanofIdaho.com. Direct all families and youth ages 14 and older to the website for the handbook. There is a YES chapter in the handbook that explains eligibility, how to get services, and other programs and resources for youth.
- Find the required trainings for YES providers in the For Providers area of www.MagellanofIdaho.com.
